1. STUDIES AND TITLES

I Graduated in 1977 from the Athens University, School of Dentistry. I served in the Hellenic Navy as Ensign almost three years as Head of the Dental Department of both Crete and Athens Naval Hospital.

Before the end of my military service, and in particular in September 1979, I took part in the education of fourth-and fifth year students of the academic year 1979-1980, as an unpaid clinical instructor in the Department of Operative Dentistry and two years later, on 12/22/1981 I was elected as full time clinical instructor.

On 14 May 1985, I completed my PhD thesis (Doctorate) of the Dental School (declared Doctor of the Dental Department (with the old process), unanimously and with the degree of "PERFECT." On 22 April 1986, I was unanimously elected by the General Assembly of the Dental Department, Lecturer in Operative Dentistry (Min.Decision of 09.15.1986, Government Gazette of 09/10/86). From the October of 1987 to August of 1988, I was admitted to the University of Southern California, School of Dentistry, Los Angeles, USA) as a partner in research and education issues. The scientific staff of the School, after evaluation, awarded me the title of Visiting Assistant Professor and incorporated me in its faculty members, on 12 November 1987. On 16 March 1990, I was elected unanimously Assistant Professor in the Department of Operative Dentistry.

In 1998, I was elected unanimously Associate Professor in the Athens University, School of Dentistry. I am a member of various scientific societies in Greece and worldwide, like the Odontostomatological Research Society, Hellenic Prosthodontics Society, Hellenic Association of Supportive care of the oral cavity in cancer HASCOCC), Hellenic AIDS Society, International Association for Dental Research/CED, Academy of Operative Dentistry, Academy of Dental Materials, Academy of Sports Dentistry and Dental Trauma and the International College of Dentists.

I experienced postgraduate studies in the field of Dental Biomaterials in the University of Southern California, where I was visiting Professor from 1987 to 1992.

On March 2015 I was elected full Professor in the Athens University, School of Dentistry head of the Department of Dental Pathology and Therapeutics, moderating the Lesson of Dental Practice Management.

I am Vice-President of the Regional Dental Society of Attica and President of the Continuous Education Committee. I am the Scientific Editor of the Hellenic Stomatological Review, the official scientific publication of the Hellenic Dental Association published trimonthly. Since 2007, I have been moderating the Infection Control and Waste Management Working Group of the Council of European Dentists (CED). I have presented more than 102 scientific publications in Hellenic and International magazines and more than 360 presentations worldwide in the field of Dental Biomaterials, Operative Dentistry, Environmental topics, Infection Control Procedures and Practice Management Issues.

I have been for 7 years Co-head of the Total Care Clinic of the Athens University, School of Dentistry, Vice-President of the Regional Dental Society of Attica and I am currently Secretary General of the Hellenic Dental Association.
